

Ice Skate USA Group Liability Waiver

You must agree to the following to skate at Ice Skate USA

- You must sign a participation agreement release of liability, or waiver of claims assumption of risk form.
- Rental of ice does not include any changes that may be assessed for damage by the user organization.
- No public address system or any radio amplification system may be brought into the rink.

Skater Responsibility Code:

- While on the ice, keep moving, do not stop where you obstruct other skaters
- Do not skate in groups as chains or trains
- People ahead of you have the right of way
- No snowball or object throwing
- Keep exits clear, before getting on the ice, watch for skaters passing by
- Do not sit on the ice or in the players benches
- Do not carry children or other objects while skating
- You must have ice skates on to enter the ice surface
- Headphones are not allowed on the ice
- There is no eating or drinking on the ice
- Skate monitors are there to assist you, listen to them
- Respect the ice, do not kick or chip at the ice surface, or the sideboards

Dress Code Suggestions:

Wear jacket, sweatshirt, or any warm clothing so you may take off and on, and gloves or mittens. Don't forget your socks!

You are ultimately responsible for your own personal safety

Use caution and skate in control with respect for other skaters. The rink cannot guarantee your safety and will not protect you from injury. It is part of your responsibility to avoid skaters and hazards, failure to use good judgment will result in the loss of your skating privileges.

I attest that I have read and understood these guidelines, and have the authority to sign this agreement of the user organization.
